Lower Savannah Council of Governments (LSCOG) is updating the Regional Hazard Mitigation Plan, a key strategy to reduce risk from natural disasters such as floods, hurricanes, and severe storms.

This plan helps protect people, property, and infrastructure across our region — and your input matters.

Learn more about the plan and explore our interactive story map here:

Help shape our region's plan to better prepare for future disasters.

Take a few minutes to complete the Hazard Mitigation Survey — your feedback will help identify local priorities and community needs. Your input = a safer, stronger community.
